

Gems of Panth Rattan Bhai Jasbir Singh Ji

1. If you are wanting to do service, help others, do Nitnem, wake up early in the morning, but have still not made up your mind to be the disciple of the Guru, you have got to acknowledge that your mind is still dirty and polluted.
2. Without the sustenance of Guru Shabad, there is no hope.
3. May God bless you and merge you with Guruji.
4. Where there is prayer, there is Life. A life without prayer is impure.
5. The Sikh who follows the teaching of the Guru is a pure soul.
6. God, I swear by your love. I am alive because you love me.
7. Wash your sins with tears of remorse and regret.
8. Today the whole world is foregoing Gurshabad in favour of physical entities. But without the support of Guru's holy word there is no protection or hope.
9. When listening to the truth hear only the Truth.
10. Man, if you wish to save your life, never forget Gurbanee.
12. God is not far from you. Just seek him out with His eyes.
13. With Guru's grace the distance between you and Parmayshar will come to an end.
14. The true sewak believes that the opportunity to serve others can be obtained by participating in seva in the first place.
16. Enjoy His gifts but never forget God.
17. Gifts are purely tokens given by Almighty God. Upon receiving these, let us join with God.
18. If we meet God just once, then there is no separation.

19. Eternal pleasure can only be attained at the feet and protection of the Guru.
20. It is easy to give orders and even to listen but to obey the order is very difficult. The obedient ones are the ones who become the recipients of Guru's kindness.
21. No one can defeat a person with a strong mind.
22. Pain and pleasure are received as a result of our deeds. But with God's grace, a Gurmukh is able to experience pleasure even from pain.
23. Do not worry. Remember Saiee (God) and all anxiety will end.
25. Love is one such gift which cannot be had on demand; it is received when God gives it to us.
27. Anyone who continually remembers Him will himself be absorbed in God.
28. If you have reached the gate of the true-one then you have arrived at the house of truth (God).
29. If you understand the True Bane , you have understood the Truth (God).
30. Bane is the door and the only entrance to His House.
31. If you want to have a glimpse of Saii (God) you can identify Him through Satguru and Satguru is known through his Bane.
32. The mind of those who have forgotten Bani is leporous.
33. May God always help us to remember Bane even if we forget everything else.
34. If the mind is leporous (lethargic) then body will also become lethargic. When the mind fails to recollect and does not pray then we will feel hurt and be at unrest.
